On or after January 1, 2026, I cannot change or revoke this Salary Redirection Agreement with respect to pre-tax premiums before the next anniversary date of the plan unless a Change in Family Status occurs (i.e., marriage, divorce, death of a spouse or child, birth or adoption of a child, termination or commencement of employment of a spouse and such other events as will permit a change or revocation of an election under the Internal Revenue Code, as amended), and the change is caused by and consistent with the Change of Family Status. Due to federal tax law, an election for a pre-tax benefit is irrevocable, except as otherwise indicated in the preceding sentence. I understand that I cannot revoke any pre-tax election based on a "right to examine" provision as may be contained in any insurance plan or policy issued to me. The right to examine provision contained within an insurance plan or policy may be preserved by purchasing the plan or policy on an after-tax basis.

CHIPRA Notice
Under the Children's Health Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2009 (CHIPRA), loss of coverage from Medicaid or Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) or becomes eligible for State premium assistance under Medicaid or CHIP, qualifies as a special enrollment. The employee has 60 days from the event to exercise their special enrollment rights.
